

REMARKS

The claims are 8-12.

Applicants acknowledge with appreciation the indication that claims 8-12 are allowable.

The above amendment makes a minor and self-explanatory correction to claim 9.

Further, the above amendment makes the editorial corrections requested by the Examiner.

With regard to the Examiner's comment that Example 5 had not been included in the present specification, the above amendment presents a copy of Example 5 which was inadvertently deleted from the text when the application entered the International stage. Example 5 was included in the Norwegian priority document and is thus properly incorporated herein. See Benger Laboratories v. Laros, 135 USPQ 11 (E.D. Pa. 1962) at 16.

No further issues remaining, allowance of this application is respectfully requested.

Respectfully submitted,

Turid RISDAL et al.
